

JOIN US FOR AN EVENING OF STORY & PURPOSE

Hi [Friend's Name],

I am/My family is hosting a small gathering and I'd/we'd love for you to join me/us. It's part of something called Discover CURE—a time of good food, meaningful conversation, and five short video stories that highlight what's possible when children with treatable disabilities receive the healing they deserve in Jesus's name.

I/we are deeply moved by CURE's mission and thought this would be a great way to share it with a few friends I/we think would appreciate it too.

Here's what to expect:

- A relaxed dinner with a small group (just a few friends)
- Short, beautiful stories of lives transformed from across the world
- No fundraising or ask—just stories that matter
